

FLIGHT INSTRUCTOR

OVERVIEW

Flight Instructor (FI) is a complete course designed to train the student pilot to the level of proficiency necessary to enable them to operate as flight instructors on single engine airplanes. The duration of the course is 3 months.

PRE-ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

- Valid EASA Medical (class 1) Certificate
- Valid EASA CPL/IR
- Minimum of 30hrs on single-engine piston airplanes of which at least 5hrs within the last six months
- Pre-entry flight test and interview, assessing the student's ability to undertake the course

THE THEORETICAL TRAINING

The theoretical training's aim is to prepare the future instructor on teaching and learning methods. Student psychology and various teaching techniques will be covered in the 125 hrs of ground school. In the duration of the ground school the training instructors will give a number of lectures to a live audience (active commercial students), on various aviation subjects.

THE FLIGHT TRAINING

The student will complete 40 hrs of flight training, 30 hrs on single engine airplanes and 10 hrs on an FNPT II flight simulator, including 25 hrs VFR and 15 hrs IFR. During the flight training, the student will be shown all flight exercises and will be instructed on pilot student training techniques. In addition, the student will be expected to do proper briefings and debriefings, as well as, evaluations of students' errors and provide corrective actions.

FLIGHT INSTRUCTOR

COST ANALYSIS OF THE COURSE

Type of Service	Aircraft & FNPT	Flight hrs (Minimum)	Duration	Installment Payment Plan (for minimum hrs)
Pre-entry Evaluation Flight	SEP	02 hrs		✈ €500 will be paid before the Evaluation Flight
FI Theoretical Training	-	-	6 weeks	✈ € 6,500 will be paid at enrollment
Flight Training (FI)	SEP	30 hrs	6 weeks	✈ € 6,500 will be paid before flight training begins
Flight Training (FI)	FNPT II	10 hrs
Final Examination
		42 hrs	12 weeks	€ 13,500

* Uniform cost is not included in the above offer .

 CAA license issuance fees are not included in the above offer.